HE DISGRACED HIMSELF.

FOOLISH ACTION OF A KANSAS OFFICER.

Major Deacon Made a Spectacle of Himself at Wichita, Kansas, Yesterday.

WICHITA, Kas., Aug. 25.—The conduct of Major Deacon, yesterday afternoon, while inspecting the Second regiment, Kansas National Guard, which has been in camp here for the past three days, has created a large sized military scandal and will probably be a subject for investigation by a court-martial.

Major Deacon lives in Topeka, and was lieutenant of the Topeka battery of artillery when Governor Lewelling placed him on his staff with the rank of major. When the Second regiment went into camp here he was detailed by Major General Percy Daniels to inspect the regiment.

He came on the parade grounds yesterday afternoon vulgarly drunk, and after rolling past two companies and inflicting scratches and abrasions on some of the men by his violence and carelessness in throwing back their guns to them and the careless handling of his sword, he was induced to leave the rest of the inspection to others.

When the march past commenced Major Deacon mounted his horse and fell over on the other side. He was lifted on again and had only gone a few paces when he again toppled to the ground, this time falling on his sword and breaking it in three pieces.

Some of his superior officers then ordered him off the parade grounds and he was taken to his hotel.

THE MINISTER ACQUITTED.

Rev. Kendall Exonerated From Charges Preferred Against Him.

LUTESVILLE, Mo., Aug. 25.—The committee appointed by Bishop W. W. Duncan, of the St. Louis conference of the Methodist church, south, to investigate charges of immorality, fraud and using his office as a means of obtaining higher office, against Rev. J. T. Kendall, presiding elder of the Charleston district, ended its work in a secret session here today, exonerating the accused from the charges.

It was charged that Kendall had used his office to secure the election as a delegate to the general conference at Memphis in 1894. He also overdraw his bank accounts a few times, which raised the charge of fraud. He always made the amounts good, however. Dr. Werlein, of St. Louis, was chairman of the committee and Dr. Earley secretary.

THERE'S TROUBLE AHEAD.

Mayor Stevens Makes Predictions Regarding the Ball Game.

Recorder Pilkington, when seen at noon today, said:

"You can say to the people of Sedalia that this ball game will be for blood, from start to finish; that we propose to wipe up the earth with those city dudes, and then chase them off the grounds."

On the other hand, Captain Stevens says that the city team are born winners, and that if they don't sweep those court house aristocrats off the park grounds he will dismiss his appointees and ask for the resignations of the elected officers, and that next week new faces will be seen both in the council and in the offices.

OPIUM IN LEMONS.

The Queer Discovery Made in the Raid on a "Hop" Joint.

KANSAS CITY, August 25.—Constable Frank King unearthed a Chinese opium den at 509 Walnut street yesterday, and succeeded in arresting the proprietor, Young Sing, and three frequenters. The constable went to the Chinaman's place alone yesterday and asked him for $1 worth of "hop." He says Sing took the $1 and began weighing out the "hop." King made an excuse, got his money back and called his deputies. When they entered the place the smokers scattered in every direction and one succeeded in making good his escape. Jim Lee took refuge in the tall weeds back of the house, but the officers got him. The prisoners were marched up to Justice Worthen's court and Young Sing was placed under $200 bond for his appearance in court Monday morning.

The constables confiscated a huge clothes basket full of opium paraphernalia, consisting of pipes, hypodermic syringes, opium scales, lamps for lighting the pipes and scores of cans partly filled with the waxy opium; but the greatest thing in the whole collection were a number of lemons filled with the prepared drug. The lemons had been opened at one end, leaving enough of the rind intact to act as a hinge. The inside of the fruit had been carefully removed and the lemons filled with the opium gum. It is probable that this is a means resorted to in smuggling the drug into the country. Several thousand dollars' worth of opium could easily be imported in an ordinary case of lemons.

SPIRITUALISTS' MEETING.

The Work to Be Persecuted in Missouri.

NEVADA, Mo., Aug. 25.—Today the delegate convention of the Progressive Spiritual Association of Missouri met at Catalpa hall.

The secretary called the meeting to order and the following officers were elected:

President, E. Hendricks.
First Vice President, R. Hall.
Second Vice President, Mrs. Julia Calby.

Recording and Corresponding Secretary, Miss Ida Hendricks.

Financial Secretary, J. Koehler.

Treasurer, J. T. Shark.

All of the above reside in Springfield.

Trustees—Hon. Joseph Brown, St. Louis; Mr. J. Gates, Kansas City; J. Welden, this city; Wm. Hart, Kirksville.

The state was divided into four districts, the dividing lines being the center of the state as nearly as is possible.

Steps were taken to place lecturers in the field to organize the state into local organizations and provide speakers and mediums. The state will be thoroughly canvassed. Prof. J. Allen, of New York, delivered an interesting lecture, urging the importance of organizing and of sustaining speakers and mediums.

BREAD RIOT IN BUFFALO.

Unemployed Poles Raid the Broadway Provision Stands.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 25.—Serious trouble developed yesterday at the Broadway market, East Buffalo, due to the bold robbery of provision stands by unemployed Poles. The trouble began Wednesday and was renewed this morning.

The owners of the stands and stalls which were raided by the hungry mob withstood the attempt to loot them of their poverty as best they could, finally using violence, and a riot resulted.

The assaulting parties of Poles, numbering forty or fifty at first, soon increased to 200 or 300, far outnumbering the market men and police on duty, though a call for aid was made upon police headquarters and the reserves were hurried in patrol wagons to the scene. They speedily restored order and arrested ten of the ringleaders.

The immediate cause of the disturbance is said to have been an attempt by a Hebrew peddler to defraud a Polish woman in making change. In addition it was stated last night that the Poles had decided to raid the market this morning. In short, there was a bread riot, and only the prompt action of the police checked it.

BURGLARY LAST NIGHT.

The Residence of Mrs. McVey Was Entered.

The residence of Mrs. A. McVey, No. 507 New York avenue, was burglarized last night.

An entrance was gained through the cellar, after which the thief ascended to the second story, where he found Charlie McVey sleeping.

Charlie's clothes were lying upon a chair, so the thief picked up chair, clothing and all and carried them down stairs and out upon the porch.

The pantaloons and a purse with $3 or $4 in it were stolen by the thief, but the other garments were left on the porch.

Adjoining Charlie's room, up stairs, Miss Hortense was sleeping, and considerable jewelry was lying upon the dresser, but it was not molested, so it is thought the thief did not enter that particular room. There is no clew.

Death of Sheriff Ayers.

Sheriff Samuel M. Ayers, aged 30 years, died yesterday at his residence in Marshall of typhoid fever, after three weeks' illness.

The deceased was known throughout the state, having rendered valuable detective service during his connection with the office of sheriff.

At the age of 22 he was appointed deputy sheriff under John R. Cason, which position he held until 1889, when he was elected to the office of sheriff. He was re-elected in 1892. Deceased leaves a widow and two children in good circumstances.

Mr. Ayers had a large circle of friends in Sedalia who will learn of his death with sorrow.

Will Locate In St. Louis.

A letter received by a Sedalia gentleman leads to the belief that Hon. L. L. Bridges will locate in St. Louis instead of returning to Sedalia when he leaves Washington for good. Capt. Bridges will come nearer than any other man filling the place vacated by the late Maj. J. C. McGinnis in the republican ranks of St. Louis.

HIGHLEY IN "HOC."

A Sedalia Minstrel Manager in Serious Trouble.

Information was received here last night that Charley Highley was under arrest at Buncheon, Cooper county, on the charge of having obtained money by false representations.

Mr. Highley has for a few days past been managing a party of Sedalia negroes who have been playing in some of the smaller villages in Central Missouri, but the arrest of the head of the outfit forced the combination to the wall and they returned home this morning.

The DEMOCRAT wired to the Buncheon Eagle this morning for particulars of the arrest and received the following reply:

BUNCHEON, Mo., August 25.—Highley was arrested here Wednesday night. An officer having him in charge left for Sedalia this morning.

As neither Mr. Highley nor the officer could be located here, the chances are that the prisoner was taken to Boonville instead of being brought to Sedalia.

Official Paper of the City of Sedalia.

It is the late financial panic now.

SEDALIA has no room for professional abortionists.

We will have no panics in this country when our finances are on a sound, just basis.

SEDALIA'S emergency hospital starts out under most favorable auspices, thanks to a number of the city's noble-hearted ladies.

The postoffice primary is less than three weeks off, and the DEMOCRAT today presents the first announcements on the part of candidates.

EVERY person who can possibly afford it should purchase one or more tickets for the charity ball game to be played at Association park tomorrow afternoon.

THERE are a number of people in Sedalia anxious for employment, and the DEMOCRAT is glad to state that the city and county officials will do everything possible to see that the same is provided.

HON. JOHN T. HEARD'S remarks on the silver question, yesterday, had the right ring—a silvery ring. Mr. Heard can always be depended upon to stand by his constituents, as they long since realized.

A QUARTER of a million dollar fire in Chicago rendered 700 people homeless yesterday. Like the great conflagration of more than a score of years ago, the one of yesterday was caused by the overturning of a lamp.

THE SEDALIA DEMOCRAT has been presented with a cabbage head which weighs twenty-two pounds. Cooper can beat it.—Missouri Democrat.

Be a little more definite, colonel. What weight, please?

THE late financial panic has caused the water to be squeezed out of many of the purely speculative enterprises. Thus it has proven to be not an unmixed evil. Such periods of liquidation seem inevitable about every twenty or thirty years.

THIS paper has on one or two occasions criticised the action of State School Superintendent Wolfe, but the cause of education entitles him to the good wishes of all the people, and his address last night shows that he has a high idea of what our educational system should be.

So far as results are obtainable from the French election they indicate a marked decline of the Royalists. The strength that they sought to secure through the agitation of the Panama scandal has soon been dissipated and their power as a political factor has practically departed.

THE evidences of returning prosperity multiply with gratifying rapidity. Now the great Havermeyer sugar refinery has resumed business and the means of living in comfort are assured to 20,000 people. Give those who are willing to work the means of earning money, and it will at once find its way into the channels of trade.

THE ex-Confederate association very wisely re-elected Hon. James Bannerman president for the ensuing year. He is a business man, and his experience, enterprise and industry have been of great value in raising the funds for building the home and in expending such funds judiciously. Jim Bannerman can well view with pride and satisfaction the work that has been accomplished by the association during the past year.

EVERY man who is justly entitled to a pension will continue to receive it. In this matter the action of Judge Lochren, the pension commissioner, has been characterized by the utmost fairness. He has extended until October 10th the period in which persons whose pensions have been suspended may make proof of their right to receive the same. The commissioner was prompted to make this extension of time in consequence of the persistent misrepresentation of the bureau by certain newspapers for a purpose, thinking that many pensioners may have been misled in this way and discouraged from presenting such proofs as they could furnish. The pension department is conducted now in strictly a business way, with no sentiment about it, and the man who is entitled to a pension is in no danger of having his name stricken from the list.

It is a very easy matter to blame the present financial condition of affairs upon the democratic party. It is in power and we suppose we will have to stand it, says the Carrollton Democrat, although no more responsible for any of the existing troubles than are the South sea islanders for the condition in which Peary finds the Arctic ocean. The present condition of affairs is the result of republican legislation. The laws which now so injuriously affect the prosperity of the country are not of democratic origin. The democratic party is in no way responsible for their enactment. They were passed in the face of democratic opposition and protest. Since coming into power the democratic party has had no opportunity to remedy the evils of republican maladministration. That relief will come need not be doubted. But the time will come when the effects of wise democratic laws and conservative democratic action will cause a boom in every legitimate business and industry, and then what a dose it will be for the present calamity howler to admit that the prosperity enjoyed is due to the fact that the democracy is in power. Just wait and hear these tribulation talkers hedge, when we get through suffering from republican misrule.

ONE of the interesting features of the confederate reunion to be held at Birmingham, Ala., on September 15 and 16, will be a series of historical tableaux in which each of the states comprising what is known as "the solid south" will be represented by a young lady especially selected for her personal beauty. Col. Switzer has this to say in the Missouri Democrat, published at Boonville: "To Gen. J. M. Lewis, of St. Louis, was assigned the difficult task by the officers of the confederate association of selecting 'the most beautiful unmarried young lady in Missouri' to represent the state; and after mature consideration he has chosen Miss Katherine Turner, of Columbia, daughter of Hon. Squire Turner, a prominent lawyer of Columbia, and niece of Governor Stone, her mother being the governor's sister. She was educated at Woodland college, Independence, and at Stephens' college, Columbia, of which latter institution she is a graduate. She is a lady of remarkable symmetrical figure and acknowledged beauty of feature, and an accomplished vocalist, having been for several years soloist of the Episcopal church of Columbia. Some newspaper cuts of her we have seen are caricatures."

HEARD ON SILVER.

One of the Very Best Arguments Heard on the Question.

Under the five-minute rule in the house, Hon. Jno. T. Heard, of Missouri, yesterday spoke briefly but forcibly against the repeal of the Sherman act.

At the same time Mr. Heard took occasion to announce his position touching the free coinage of silver, saying emphatically that he would prefer limited coinage at the present ratio to unlimited coinage at any ratio higher than 16 to 1.

Mr. Heard spoke without notes, and at the instance of his colleagues his time was twice extended. He was applauded several times by the house and the fact is generally conceded that it was one of the best of the shorter arguments yet made on the silver question.

CONSTABLE GOSSAGE'S VISIT TO CHILlicothe.

A SPLENDID INSTITUTION.

Such is the State Industrial Home for Girls—Pettis County's Children.

Constable James Gossage returned last evening from Chillicothe, where he yesterday committed Birdie Wiley and Eliza Beaman to the State Industrial Home for Girls.

There are now forty-seven inmates of the Home, Mr. Gossage says, of whom seven are from Pettis county, viz: Blanch Rutledge, Maggie O'Banion, Dollie Adams, Maud Dyer, Hattie Jones and the two committed yesterday.

"I never saw a party of children better provided for than those at the Home," said Mr. Gossage to a DEMOCRAT reporter, "and the Pettis county children who have been there for some months are perfectly satisfied. They are neatly dressed, have nice, clean clothing and are much better off in every way than they were at home."

"The Home was established by an act of the Thirty-fourth general assembly, approved March 30th, 1887. The sum of five thousand dollars was appropriated for the purchase of ground, thirty thousand for building, five thousand for furnishing and incidental expenses. To these sums were added five thousand dollars donated by the citizens of Chillicothe through the Chillicothe board of trade."

"The act constituted and appointed the governor, attorney-general and register of lands, locating commissioners, authorizing them to receive such donations in money, lands or building material as might be tendered by parties seeking to secure the location. On the 28th day of July, 1887, the commissioners accepted the donation named and located the home on the land now occupied. This consists of about forty-seven acres of beautiful rolling blue grass pasture land, within three-fourths of a mile of the public square of Chillicothe, and within range of the water, gas and electric light lines of the city."

"The cottage is in the form of a right angle triangle, with a front facade octagonal in shape. The two wings are two stories and basement, the front facade three stories and basement."

"The two wings are 28x62 feet each, and the front forty-seven feet by an average of fourteen, the building showing a frontage on two sides of one hundred and nine feet each."

"The basements are built of stone, handsomely trimmed, the upper stories are of brick with cut stone and galvanized iron trimmings, the whole roofed with slate. On the 22d day of January, 1889, the board declared the Home open for inmates, but here they met a stumbling block in the provisions of the law governing commitments."

"Section 12 of the establishing act required that every girl between the age of seven and twenty years before being committed to the Home should be adjudged guilty of some offense not punishable by imprisonment for life by some judge or court of competent jurisdiction, before she should be committed to the Home. While such a law as this produced very good results in the case of boys, it was inapplicable to girls."

"The board have made every effort possible to have this defect in the law remedied, but as yet without success, except in this: That the Home has been made to take the place of the master in the old master and apprentice statute."

"The objects and purposes of the Home so clearly set forth in almost the exact language of the establishing act cannot be accomplished if the abandoned girl without a protector or guardian, is to be left to the tender mercies of the world until she has committed some crime, and been adjudged guilty thereof in some criminal court before she can receive the benefits provided for her in the Home."

The Home is conducted on the family or cottage plan, where girls from seven to seventeen years of age, removed from vicious associates and evil influences, may receive a careful physical, intellectual and moral training, and such non-sectarian religious instruction as may be prescribed by the superintendent; participate in the enjoyment of a true home life; be reformed and become good domestic women, prudent in speech and conduct, cleanly, industrious and capable housekeepers.

Mr. Gossage thinks the Home is one of the most desirable institutions in the state, and desires to assure the relatives of children committed there that they are well provided for in every particular.

An A. P. A. Leader Dead.

Dr. J. B. Glancies, the well known A. P. A. advocate, died last Tuesday at his home, 1435 Wright street, in St. Louis. Dr. Glancies was the leader of the A. P. A. forces in St. Louis and was the first to bring the influence of the order into politics. He was a fearless speaker and on account of his beliefs, which he boldly advocated in public, he had several narrow escapes from infuriated mobs. He was a native of Tennessee, was 38 years old and leaves a widow.

THE FORTY-NINERS.

A Splendid Meeting at Boonville Yesterday.

The Association of Forty-Niners held their annual meeting at Boonville yesterday.

Col. Robert McCulloch, ex-state register of lands, presided over the business meeting, at which they elected officers to serve for the ensuing year, and fixed the date of the meeting on the last Friday in September, 1894. Boonville was selected as the place of such meeting.

The association is composed of men who went to California during the gold excitement of 1849, and was organized several years ago. They are pledged to meet once a year, if possible, as long as they shall live.

"Uncle Jack" Elliott, of this city, now deceased, was one of the organizers of the association.

BROKE THE RECORD.

John R. Gentry's "Theo. Shelton" Did It Yesterday.

One of the features of the racing at Rich Hill yesterday afternoon was the race against time of the wonderful yearling colt, Theodore Shelton, owned by John R. Gentry, of this city, for a special purse of $300.

He was driven out by J. F. Ramey, by the side of a running mate, in 1:11½, breaking the world's yearling pacing record on a half-mile track.

Theo. Shelton is by Ashland Wilks, dam Dame Wood, by Wedgewood, full brother to John R. Gentry (3-year-old), 2:12¾.

Mrs. George Downs, of Sedalia, committed suicide by the morphine route, because, she said, her husband was too attentive to her mother.—Windsor Review.

Mistake, Harry. The lady is still among the living, and the belief now is that no attempt was ever made—that it was simply a large case of bluff.

Removal.

To my patrons and the public of Sedalia: I take this opportunity of thanking you for the very liberal patronage extended to me in my former place of business just vacated for want of room to accommodate the increasing demands. I therefore solicit a continuation of your favors in my new spacious, thoroughly ventilated, healthy and modern built new quarters, situated on Fourth street, one block west of the court house.

Special care taken of boarders entrusted in my hands, both in regard to their feed and health.

Respectfully,
JOHN A. COLLINS.

Their Card Presented.

The DEMOCRAT today presents the professional card of Smith & Hastain, lawyers, with an office in the Ilgenfritz building. Both gentlemen are well and favorably known in Sedalia, Pettis county, central and southern Missouri, and their latch string will always be found on the outside.

MISSOURI DAY

WILL BE ONE OF THE BIGGEST AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

A Large Attendance is Promised from Almost Every Portion of the State.

Advices from all parts of the state indicate a heavy attendance at the World's fair on Missouri day—August 30.

The country press is especially enthusiastic and has succeeded in communicating its enthusiasm to a large element among its readers.

Now that next Wednesday has been definitely fixed upon as the auspicious day, there will be ample time for the completing of all preparations for a grand gathering. The programme of ceremonies, etc., has not yet been promulgated. Every effort is being made to make it novel as well as attractive. The chief executive of the state and several of his predecessors will add their eloquence to the other features of the entertainment, while the presence of the state soldier boys will further enhance the success of Missouri day.

An especial item on the program will be the gratuitous distribution of 50,000 copies of "Missouri at the World's Fair," the official catalogue and description of the resources of the state with reference to the exhibits at the World's fair.

This work is issued by the World's Fair commission of Missouri. It is something more than a mere pamphlet, containing as it does 175 handsomely printed pages with profuse illustrations. The giving away of so many copies of this interesting compilation represents of itself an outlay of several thousand dollars.

It should not be forgotten that all railroads going to Chicago will give a single fare rate for the round trip for a week, commencing next Tuesday. That the opportunity will be embraced by thousands of loyal Missourians there can be no possible doubt.

CASHIER SATTLLEY'S CASE.

Still Other Cases Brought Against Him in Kansas City.

E. C. Sattley, who was arrested here a week ago tomorrow and taken to Kansas City, is thus referred to in a dispatch from there dated the 24th:

"The preliminary hearing of Cashier Sattley, of the failed Kansas City Safe Deposit and Savings bank, who is charged with grand larceny, was today continued until tomorrow."

"Prosecuting Attorney Brown says three more warrants will be issued against Sattley tomorrow on the same charge, and it is said his bond will be placed at $20,000, and that warrants will also be issued for the president. President Daragh's hearing on the first charge will occur Monday."

Meeting of the G. A. R.

At last night's meeting of the local G. A. R. two recruits were mustered in, and eulogistic resolutions were passed on the late Col. Mack Y. Leaming. The transportation committee reported having secured a round trip rate of $12.45 to the encampment at Indianapolis, via Hannibal or St. Louis, and it is believed about thirty old soldiers from this immediate section will make the trip.

Prof. Wolfe's Lecture.

Prof. L. E. Wolfe, state superintendent of public instruction, lectured at the court house on school work last night and commanded the closest possible attention at the hands of his auditors. Nearly all of the teachers who have been attending the institute were present and were unanimous in the verdict that the treat was a rare one. Prof. Wolfe went east at midnight, accompanied by Mrs. Wolfe, who had arrived from Moberly at 7 o'clock p. m.

WHAT ABOUT THIS?

HERE WILL GEORGE C. SMITH
LAND, ANYHOW?

L KINDS OF STORIES.

Pay Your Money and Take Your Choice—Items of General Interest.

George C. Smith, late assistant general manager of the Missouri Pacific, is just now the recipient of more newspaper notoriety than any other western railroad man. One day he is reported as in the act of succeeding General Manager Doddridge, while the next day the story is denied. The Post-Dispatch, St. Louis, had the following story last evening:

Another rumor comes from Omaha, to the effect that Mr. Geo. C. Smith, until recently assistant general manager of the Missouri Pacific, had been summoned to New York to meet the board of directors of the Missouri Pacific system, the object of the conference being to induce Mr. Smith to accept the office of general manager of the Missouri Pacific to succeed Mr. W. B. Doddridge.

While it is possible that Mr. Smith has been summoned to New York, it is hardly probable that he has been called east on any such business.

It will be remembered that when Mr. Doddridge was appointed general manager of the Missouri Pacific he did not supersede Mr. Smith, as he was acting as assistant general manager, although he claims that while acting in that capacity he had been tendered the office of general manager, which he accepted, but no official circular was issued to that effect. Consequently when word came from New York announcing that Mr. Doddridge had received the appointment, Mr. Smith wired his resignation, claiming he had been done an injustice in the matter. His resignation was accepted and he quit the service of the road. It was understood at the time that Mr. Doddridge was greatly disappointed on the turn of affairs, as he was calculating on having Mr. Smith as his assistant, he having been connected with the Missouri Pacific for thirteen years, and was considered one of the cleverest office men in the west.

Since the day Mr. Smith left the Missouri Pacific he has not invaded the numerous sanctums of the Gould magnates, but has passed away the time at watering places watching results. Mr. Gould has always shown a friendly feeling toward Mr. Smith, as he recognized in him a railroad man of more than ordinary ability, and it is more than probable that he has been summoned to New York to meet Mr. Gould.

As Mr. Smith positively refuses to accept his old position, it is highly probable that an office will be created for him, but there is no probability of his succeeding Mr. Doddridge at this time, as that gentleman is in close connection with the board of directors, who have recently congratulated him on the businesslike manner in which he has conducted the affairs of the company.

No Truth In It.

Here is the other side of the story, from the St. Louis Republic of his morning:

Missouri Pacific officials state positively that the item sent out yesterday by an Omaha correspondent, to the effect that ex-Assistant General Manager George C. Smith, of the Missouri Pacific, is about to succeed General Manager Doddridge, of that line, is entirely without foundation.

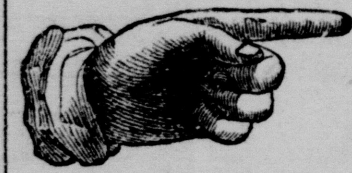

It is as certain as any event in notable human affairs that Mr. Doddridge has been placed at the head of the Missouri Pacific properties to stay. St. Louis is his home and he intends to make it permanently his place of business. He has the full confidence of the power behind the throne on the Missouri Pacific railway system, and whether place will be made for Mr. Smith or not, it is quite certain that it will never be made at the helm of the affairs of the road from which he has separated.

The Missouri Pacific's Action.

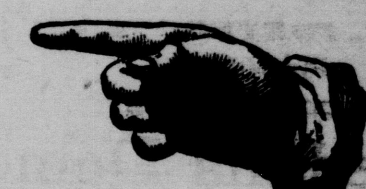

The Missouri Pacific railway has been one of the most energetic opponents of reduced rates for the World's fair, says the Chicago Tribune. Like most of the other World's fair sandbaggers, it claimed that it could not afford to make the reduction because such action would seriously curtail its revenues. The inconsistency of its position and the falsity of its claims is demonstrated by a notice just issued by the passenger department of the road to run a shopkeeper's excursion from forty-one cities in Southwest Missouri and Southeastern Kansas to Kansas City not to exceed $2 for the round trip from any point. If the road can afford to make such a low rate for the benefit of Kansas City it is hard to see why it cannot afford to make half fare rates for the World's fair. It is quite evident that President George Gould has inherited the hatred his father entertained for Chicago, as there can be no other reason why he should refuse to join in making reasonable rates for the World's fair.

Regarding the Rail.

The postoffice department has issued an order that railroad postal clerks must not ride in the postal cars unless on duty.

The trainmen on the regular M., K. & T. are just now engaged in the laudable occupation of giving the extra men a show.

Tom F. Fitzgerald, formerly with the M., K. & T. is here, and now with the Texas & Pacific at Dallas, Texas, arrived in the city last night and is greeting Sedalia friends today.

From September 1 and until further notice a reduction in salary of from 7½ to 20 per cent will be made in the salaries of the officers and employes of the Mobile and Ohio.

The Missouri Pacific passenger department has been advised that the Mormon Choir will leave Kansas City on the night of August 31 and will be in St. Louis on September 1, leaving that night for Chicago.

John Shaffer, a well-known M., K. & T. fireman, and Miss Mary Beaumont, are now in the full enjoyment of a perfect honeymoon. The happy couple gave their parents and friends the slip last Sunday and went to McCune, where they were quietly married. The young couple are receiving the congratulations of friends.—Parsons Sun.

Mrs. Adella C. Lea, of Los Angeles, Cal., wants information as to the whereabouts of her husband, A. D. Lea, who left home on July 3, to procure work. He is a locomotive engineer and formerly of Memphis, Tenn. He is well-known in Texas, having railroaded in a number of places in the state. For information of his whereabouts his wife offers $100 reward.

CLOSE OF THE ASSEMBLY.

It Concluded Its Business at Warrensburg Yesterday.

Yesterday was the tenth and last day of the Cumberland assembly at Pertle Springs. From the first it was a pronounced success.

At 9 a. m. public worship was conducted by the Christian Endeavor society. The topic of the senior normal class, conducted by Dr. Foster, which met at 10 a. m., was "Teaching of John's Epistles, with Side Lights from His Gospel."

Miss Wilson's junior normal class and Mrs. Harris' primary class also met at 10 a. m. At 11 a. m. Rev. J. M. Hubbert delivered his last lecture on "The Mutual Obligations of Pastors and People."

At 2:30 the young folks' normal class, senior section, had its last meeting, and at the same hour Mrs. Harris delivered another lecture to primary teachers and mothers.

At 3:30 Dr. Dunning closed his series of lectures on the making of a Bible. His topic was "A Study of Christ as a Teacher." At 4:45 the old folks' meeting discussed the topic, "And there were Giants in Those Days in Kentucky."

At 8 p. m. the Linden Trio Concert company gave an excellent entertainment, and the assembly closed. It will meet at Pertle Springs next year.

"Royal Ruby" Port Wine.

If you are reduced in vitality or strength by illness or any other cause, we recommend the use of this Old Port Wine, the very blood of the grape. A grand tonic for nursing mothers, and those reduced by wasting disease. It creates strength; improves the appetite, nature's own remedy, much preferable to drugs; guaranteed absolutely pure and over five years of age. Young wine ordinarily sold is not fit for use. Insist on having this standard brand, it costs no more. $1 in quart bottles, pints 60 cts. Royal Wine Co. For sale by A. S. McGowan.

Has Delirium Tremens.

Nearly everybody around here knows Wm. Crowley, says the Warrensburg Star, and those who know him know him to be a man who has drunk to excess for years. The strain on his nerves and brain caused by this awful excess of drinking has told at last, and since yesterday early he has been in a state of delirium tremens at the southwest room of the court house, and is guarded by Charles Swinford and James Harris.

Bill imagines that snakes are crawling over him and that everybody wants to shoot him. He is almost constantly moving some part of his body and very often fighting his guards. He has not slept a wink and is getting very weak, although he may pull through.

Notice to Contractors.

By order of the county court I will on, Monday, September 4, 1893, let contracts for building the following bridges:

1 wooden bridge in sec. 30, twp. 45, range 23.
1 wooden bridge in sec. 18, twp. 47, range 21.
1 wooden bridge in sec. 13, twp. 47, range 22.

For grading and building stone culvert in sec. 30, twp. 46, range 20.

The said contracts to be let to the lowest and best bidder at public outcry, at the court house, between the hours of 1 and 3 o'clock p. m. The said work to be done according to plans and specifications to be seen at my office.

The county court reserving the right to reject any and all bids.
T. O. STANLEY,
Road and Bridge Commissioner.

Pettis County Horses.

L. M. Monsees, of Smithton, Mo., proposes to "stand up for Missouri" at the World's fair, says Colman's Rural World, by showing his prize winning saddle stallion, Piedmont 198, the young saddle stallion, Lee Rose 175, and the saddle mare, Edna 174. For the labor animal of this state he will show the great jack, Superior Mammoth, Jr. 134. He says of this latter animal: "If he looks as well when I get him to Chicago as he does now, the jack that beats him will be worth $4,000 to his owner." We might add that to beat any of them they must be good ones.

Removed.

Architect W. S. Epperson has removed his office to rooms 303 and 304 Hoffman building, where he will be pleased to see all who are contemplating building, remodeling or repairing. Take elevator on Ohio street.

What Fools They Have Been.

It is useless to preach against hoarding on moral grounds. Men are governed in such matters by selfish consideration solely, and if they think it is to their advantage to lock their money up in a safe they will do so. But after, they have lost the interest on their money during these weeks of hoarding and the profit they might have made by its timely investment, and find, as they soon will, that there is more currency about than there is use for, then it is that the hoarders will begin to understand what fools they have been.—Philadelphia Times.

It Takes Something Catchy.

"The old style of advertising don't catch the eye of the public any more," said Joe Simpson this morning. "It once was that it was sufficient to cover these dead walls with flaming posters, but now it has got so that the average man will walk past the biggest bill board in the city without noticing whether the announcements are for a circus in November or a minstrel troupe last May. The consequence is something catchy must be resorted to to attract attention."

Why Prices Are Low.

Mr. A. C. Baldwin has assumed business control of the Sedalia Gazette. Baldwin was one of the founders of that journal, and has never been entirely satisfied since he sold it. His last venture was farming in Saline county, and to the enormous crops he raised are mainly due the low prices prevailing for farm products.—Tipton Times.

Faust Breaks Records.

The following is from the Springfield (Mo.) Democrat, September 6, 1892, speaking of John Griffith's production of Faust, which opens the regular season at Wood's Opera house, Monday, August 28: "There was a record broken at this popular house last night; it was a record, too, that made the management of both company and house smile with pleasure, and also the company of players that gave such an excellent production of Goethe's 'Faust,' to the largest audience that has ever filled through the doors of that house. Long before the curtain was rung up every seat was sold and S. R. O. sign hung up at the box office. As to the play and players, there never has been a more capable company in Springfield, and it is doubtful if there ever will be. The work of Mr. John Griffith, who essayed the role of Mephisto, was of the highest order, and stamps Mr. Griffith as a careful, painstaking artist. His Mephisto was as good as it could be made. The scenery and electric features were splendid."

Edgewood Folks.

The celebrated tenor, Harry Maxwell, has been specially engaged by the Alba Heywood Co. to lead the Edgewood quartette. The press speak in high praise of Mr. Maxwell's excellent voice and also of the quartette.

Miss Florence Walcott, late of the Chas. Froman Co., is a member of the Alba Heywood Co. and will be seen at the opera house Wednesday evening, Aug. 30. Miss Walcott, besides possessing rare dramatic talent, has an exceptionally high soprano voice under perfect cultivation. She will be seen in the mixed quartette.

James A. Montgomery, with the "Edgewood Folks," was a member of the famous Bostonians for four seasons. He possesses a fine baritone voice and will be seen in the Edgewood quartette, Wednesday, Aug. 30.

Indian Legend About "Oweta."

In days long past there lived in the west a beautiful Indian girl named "Oweta." She was as good as she was beautiful, and all who saw her loved her. The young men all sought her hand and love, but as she could only give to one she left with her tribe the information of her discovery of the "Oweta" coal (named after her), which is the most wonderful ever known, being equal to the finest grade of anthracite in the market; in fact, it is the finest grade of anthracite, and far cheaper. This coal is only handled by the Stanley Coal Co. Call and see them before you order your winter's supply.

LIBRARY MEETING.

What the Directors Did at This Morning's Session.

The library board met at the reading room this morning at 10 o'clock, the following members being present: Mrs. A. D. Jaynes, and Messrs. Sampson, Bronson, Smith and Van Riper.

It was decided to postpone the social at Mrs. Jaynes' for a few days, to give more time for preparation.

The members then discussed the subject of the extension of the library to the people and towns of the county. All were favorable to the idea and some definite steps will soon be taken with regard to the matter.

The ways and means committee have charge of the work of extending the subscriptions and it will be pushed vigorously.

Week's Forecasts for September.

Disturbances in progress, at beginning of the month will end in cooler weather by the 3rd. Storm conditions will return on and about the 6th. New moon on the 10th, with electric crisis and disturbances about 11th to 15th. Earthquakes and cyclone storms are probable.

A thousand to one earthquakes prove harmless, so will cyclones to human life when all prepare and watch for them. The 17th and 18th are minor storm periods, aggravated by earth's equinox and moon's first quarter. Keep open eyes! The same causes, with Vulcan and Mercury added, will conspire for the fray about 12nd to 25th. Cool nights and frost north will follow. About 29th and 30th warmer and stormy.

Not a New Case.

The Gazette of this morning says that E. Miles, an old soldier, was discovered at Seventeenth and Ohio streets, yesterday, sick and destitute, and the local G. A. R. will look after him. Officer Doty informs the DEMOCRAT that he has been assisting Mr. Miles since last Saturday, and for this reason he thinks credit should be given where credit is due.

Peter Pehl's Present.

Peter Pehl received a beautiful glass sign, five feet square, from Louisville, Ky., this morning. The letters are in gold and silver, and the frame is also of silver. The sign is a present from R. H. Parker, representing Old Style Nelson whisky, Peter being the sole agent in Sedalia for this fine brand.

SHOT BY STRIKERS.

Negroes at Litchfield and Miners Come in Conflict.

PITTSBURG, Kas., Aug. 25.—The apparent peace of yesterday in the Pittsburg district culminated last night in the shooting of Tom Betson, one of the strikers at Litchfield, by the colored miners working at mine No. 37 of the Kansas and Texas Coal company.

After the mines closed a party of about twenty of the negroes left the stockade and went to Litchfield to do some trading in the company's store. While several of them were in the store they were subjected to the jeers of the strikers, and at 8 o'clock, when the store closed, they left the building.

They were met on outside by a line of strikers, who informed them they were not to be permitted to return to the stockade. The negroes were all well armed. Turner Ivory, who acted as spokesman, said to the strikers that they were not looking for trouble, and that all they asked was an opportunity to return to the stockade unmolested.

At this the strikers began throwing missiles and fired shots at the negroes.

The volley was returned, and as a result Tom Betson was shot in the side. At the first discharge from the negroes the mob scattered and the negroes returned to the stockade unmolested.

Shooting at Monett.

MONETT, Mo., Aug. 25.—Wednesday night four young men, J. E. Tracey, brakeman; Harry Heffernan and Roy Blanks, sons of Frisco engineers, and Jim Callahan, after filling up on whisky, started out to run the town. They assaulted several persons on the street, among them, J. A. Cooper, switchman, whose skull was fractured-fatally.

City Marshal Hendrix and his assistant succeeded in easily arresting all except Tracey, who resisted and started to run, when Hendrix shot him three times, the first ball entering his back just below the right shoulder and lodging in his lung. The other two balls entered his legs. The wound in the back is fatal.
